VANTAGE WEST NAMES DANIELLE BRIDGES SVP, MORTGAGE LENDING

TUCSON, AZ (October 4, 2021) — Vantage West Credit Union has announced that Danielle Bridges has been selected to assume the position of Senior Vice President, Mortgage Lending.

Since joining Vantage West in 2006, Bridges has held many roles, including Senior Internal Auditor, Senior Vice President, Operational Excellence, and Vice President, Consumer and Real Estate Lending. During her tenure, Bridges has established herself as a leader in retail banking and consumer lending. Prior to joining Vantage West, Bridges worked in mortgage banking, where she fulfilled a wide array of functions, including contract writing, loss mitigation, and risk management.

Over the years Bridges has worked to make extensive changes to the credit union's mortgage operations, and she looks forward to continually amplifying Vantage West's mortgage operations. Her passion for helping others get the best loans for their goals brought her to Vantage West.

Bridges has served in several volunteer leadership capacities, including President of the Board of Directors for the Arizona chapter of the Credit Union Real Estate Network (CUREN).

Bridges graduated with a dual Bachelor of Science in Business Economics and Finance from the Eller College of Management at the University of Arizona. She later returned to her alma mater to complete her Master of Business Administration.

Her experience and expertise enable her to partner with key stakeholders to deliver a superior mortgage experience for Vantage West Members.
