Financial Success Essay Questions

Your essay should answer all three of these important questions:

1. What is your vision of financial success?
2. Do you believe you are on track to achieve that vision?
You might consider factors such as the anticipated cost of, and your means to pay for your college education, your career choice (i.e. - future income potential), and your current financial habits (such as saving, spending, budgeting, and general financial knowledge).
3. If you don't believe you're already on-track to meet your financial success vision, what changes might help you get there?
-OR-
If you do believe you're already on-track, are there any actions/changes you plan to make to help you stay on-track?
